

SEA GRANT LAW AND POLICY JOURNAL
Call for Student Papers

The SEA GRANT LAW AND POLICY JOURNAL is seeking submissions from law students for papers addressing coastal, ocean, and Great Lakes law and policy issues. Chosen papers will be published in a Summer 2019 edition of the SEA GRANT LAW AND POLICY JOURNAL. Submissions must be received by 5 p.m. Central Time on Friday, March 15, 2019.

The SEA GRANT LAW AND POLICY JOURNAL is an Open Access online journal that provides a forum for the timely discussion and exploration of legal topics of relevance to the Sea Grant network of extension agents, researchers, coastal managers and users, and local decision-makers. The Journal features articles on a range of law and policy subjects including fisheries, coastal development, coastal access, invasive species, and water quality and quantity. Unlike traditional law reviews, the Journal highlights more applied research and case studies.

For more information on the Sea Grant network, see: <https://seagrants.noaa.gov/>.

For more information on the SEA GRANT LAW AND POLICY JOURNAL, see: <http://nsglc.olemiss.edu/sglpj/index.html>.

Applications:

Students should respond to this call for papers by submitting a full, complete paper for possible inclusion in a Summer 2019 edition of the Journal. Accepted articles will be subject to peer review and edits may be suggested.

Writer Guidelines:

1. Papers should be fewer than 15,000 words.
2. Papers should be formatted with Times New Roman 12-point type, with one inch margins.
3. Text and citations should conform to The Bluebook: a Uniform System of Citation.
4. Authors who reuse pictures and figures from other publication must acquire the appropriate copyright permission.

Please send all submissions or submission questions to:
Catherine Janasie, Editor of the SEA GRANT LAW AND POLICY JOURNAL, at cjanasie@olemiss.edu.

Submissions must be received by 5 p.m. Central Time on Friday, March 15, 2019.