

NSGLC News

— July 2022 —

Photo: TJ Gehling

NSGLC's monthly e-newsletter with publication and research highlights, as well as news alerts on other major activities.

Publications

The NSGLC is pleased to offer the June 2022 issue of Ocean and Coastal Case Alert. Cases covered this month include a California court ruling that bees may be classified as fish for purposes of the state endangered species act. Catch up on this case and more!

View Case Alert

NSGLC summer associate Betsy Randolph wrote a blog post, "NPDES Permit Issued for Aquaculture Activities in the Gulf of Mexico".

Research

A recent article in Reviews in Fisheries Science and Aquaculture draws on the proceedings from the NSGLC's "Exploring Options to Authorize Offshore Aquaculture" workshop published in December 2021.

NSGLC summer associate Betsy Randolph compiled information for Illinois-Indiana Sea Grant on how recent settlements with pharmaceutical companies may be distributed to Great Lakes states.

View Advisory Request

The Law Center provided background information on a Virginia oyster case, Johnson v. City of Suffolk, to assist Virginia Sea Grant with article research.

Funding Opportunities!

The National Sea Grant Law Center is accepting applications from Sea Grant Programs to serve as host offices for postgraduate Ocean, Coastal, and Great Lakes Law Research Fellows. Letters of Intent were due May 25th. Full proposals are due by 5 p.m. Central Time on Wednesday, July 6, 2022. Find out more.

NSGLC Presents!

NSGLC Webinar Series: This summer, the NSGLC is hosting four student interns who are conducting research on an array of topics, including flooding mitigation, coastal resilience, tribal water rights, fisheries, Rights of Nature, and lead in drinking water. Two of the students are participating in collaborative programs: the Sea Grant Law Diversity Internship Program, in which the NSGLC has partnered with the Virginia Coastal Policy Center, and Sea Grant's Community Engaged Internship. On July 21st at 2:00 p.m. CT, the students will discuss their internship experiences and present findings from their research projects.

Register for Webinar

On June 24, NSGLC director Stephanie Otts presented about the University of Mississippi Lead in Drinking Water Project at the Delta Regional Forum in Clarksdale, MS.

In June, NSGLC attorney Cathy Janasie attended the Universities Council on Water Resources (UCOWR) annual conference in Greenville, SC. Cathy served as a delegate for the Sea Grant Water Resources Network at the meeting. She also gave a talk on legal and regulatory updates for Per- and Polyfluorinated Substances (PFAS), moderating a panel on water conflicts and justice issues, and participating in a speed networking event for students and young professionals.

Top Tweet of the Month

Today is #WorldSeaTurtleDay! #DYK Six species of sea turtles are found in U.S. waters & @NOAAFisheries and @USFWS share jurisdiction for recovery and conservation of threatened and endangered sea turtles. #SeaTurtleWeek #SeaTurtle #EndangeredSpecies  Pexels from Pixabay.

National Sea Grant Law Center
<https://nsglc.olemiss.edu>

National Sea Grant Law Center | 256 Kinard Hall, Wing E, University, MS 38677

Unsubscribe bdbarne1@olemiss.edu

Update Profile | Constant Contact Data Notice

Sent by bdbarne1@olemiss.edu in collaboration with

Try email marketing for free today!